

JOB VACANCY at Care for the Family

Would you like to play a key role in transforming the lives of thousands of families in the UK?

Are you a motivated fundraiser looking to make your next move in a growing national charity?

Trust Fundraiser | Salary: £26K - £28K p.a. | Full-time post
Location: Based in Cardiff for a minimum of one day per week with flexible working options for other days

Care for the Family is a leading family charity operating across the UK to strengthen family life and help those hurting because of family difficulties. Reaching thousands of parents and families, Care for the Family provides a dynamic range of support covering relationship education, befriending for those bereaved, support for parents coping with eating disorders, breaks for those parenting alone, courses on parenting, drug awareness, financial awareness and an exciting programme of major events focusing on family life.

Already extremely successful with fundraising from its established Partners' programme, Care for the Family is now embarking on an ambitious strategy to increase income from several new areas including Trusts and is now building a team to meet these challenging new targets.

As an integral part of the team, you will be an ambitious Trust Fundraiser looking to make your mark within a growing national charity. Ready to take on the challenge of research, development and securing income from a range of Trust and Grants including those with Christian foundations and those with a wider remit, you will thrive on working to deadlines and targets and be able to demonstrate a creative approach to writing compelling applications for support.

This is a full time role to research and raise income from Trusts and Grants to enable Care for the Family to meet its challenging goals. Voted recently in the Sunday Times as one of the top 50 best charity employers in the UK, Care for the Family is embarking on major new projects that will impact the lives of thousands of families and parents around the UK.

If you would like to be part of these exciting plans then please get in touch. For an informal chat about the role please contact Ruth Jackson on 07767 324003.
