EPISODE 18: Using boundaries to bolster your marriage
featuring Andy and Dana Masters

1. Before listening to this episode, what did the word 'boundaries' mean to you?
2. How can you ensure that your boundaries reflect love, not control?
3. Can you identify any areas of your marriage that would benefit from boundaries?
4. Dana advised against trying to do it all at once by setting boundaries in every area and instead to pick one area to begin with. Which area could this be for you?
5. Could you set a time for a conversation about where your marriage is at right now and where you want it to be?
