Teddington is a leafy suburb of West London on the River Thames between Richmond and Kingston, very close to Hampton Court Palace, and only a few miles south-east of Heathrow Airport. Teddington Baptist Church is in Church Road, Teddington. It is the glass fronted building about 100 yards (100 metres) on the left up Church Road from the traffic lights at the junction of Church Road and Broad Street.

BY TRAIN: Teddington Railway Station (on the loop line from Waterloo) is only about six minutes walk away. Trains are usually at least every 30 minutes from Waterloo via Kingston.

Leave the station from the ticket office side, turn right and go along Adelaide Road to Park Road. Turn right into Park Road, cross the zebra crossing and go past the Police Station on your left. Bear left through the Causeway and then straight across the Broad Street traffic lights into Church Road. The Church Centre is 100 yards (100 metres) up Church Road on the left.

BY BUS: The X26, 33, R68, 281, 285 and 481 buses stop in Broad Street, Teddington close to the traffic lights at the junction of Broad Street and Church Road. The Church Centre is on the left, 100 yards (100 metres) up Church Road.

BY CAR: Teddington is about a mile south of Twickenham (site of the rugby ground). You can reach it easily from the A316 which is the feeder road for the M3 which runs to the south-west out of London. Turn south off the A316 at one of the main junctions near Twickenham - Teddington will be signed. Our postcode (useful for satnavs) is TW11 8PF. We have a small carpark with 7 places off Church Road just to south of our buildings.
